THIS WAY TO NOWHERE

I'm never gonna ring your finger
I'm always gonna tell you lies
And I'm gonna touch you till your souls on fire

I'm gonna be your sinner
I'm gonna take your pride
And I'm gonna love your till your heart yells liar

CHORUS:

If you wanna go there
It's this way to nowhere
It's up to you, it's your life.
If you really don't care
About this side of somewhere
It's this way to nowhere

RAP:

I wanna get something straight
We're not leaving this up to fate
When this is done I turn the page
It's not a war that will be waged.

Love is in the way
You can go or you can stay
I know the game very well
I'm not a story you can tell

You know the rules
So let's be cool
Don't wanna be nobody's fool
But if you really don't care
About this side of somewhere
It's this way to nowhere
